

4 Feb 1971

Stauffer Chemical Company's Phoston Operation recently completed one year without a lost-time accident. In acknowledgement of this achievement Stauffer Chemical provided the Phoston Employees with a banquet at the Stardust Restaurant in Heber City. Present with their partners for this occasion were: Elden R. Slater, Thomas J. Davis, William C. Jordan, Jr., Robert A. Morris, Jr., Darwin E. Casper, Boyd McKnight, Dennis J. Neel, E. Allan Bates, M. Paul Wright, Kenneth D. Smith, Forman; D. L. King Jr., Asst. Div. Manager; C. W. McClung, Div. Mgr., and E. A. Valentino, Company Safety Director. After the fine dinner and a few short remarks door prizes were won by Mrs. Thomas J. Davis, Miss Tammy Draper and Mrs. Elden R. Slater.